 - > Pentagon Says It's Hiding No One From Red Cross
 - > WASHINGTON - The Pentagon denied yesterday that it is hiding any
 - > imprisoned terrorism suspects from the International Committee of the Red
 - > Cross. A Defense Department spokesman would not comment on whether other
 - > U.S. agencies might be doing so.
 - > "I can say that ICRC has access to all detainee operations under our
 - > control," said Larry Di Rita, chief spokesman for Defense Secretary Donald
 - > H. Rumsfeld. "Beyond that, I'm just not prepared to discuss it."
 - > The CIA has declined to comment on whether it might be holding terrorism
 - > suspects at foreign locations. On Tuesday, Antonella Notari, spokeswoman
 - > for the Switzerland-based ICRC, said terrorism suspects reported by the
 - > FBI as captured have never turned up in detention centers known to the Red
 - > Cross, and the United States has failed to reply to Red Cross demands for
 - > a list of all detainees.
